User's Manual

1.0   General Information

General Information section explain in general terms the system and the purpose for which it is intended

1.1   System Overview

MovieApp is a web-based system which allow admin to create, add, update and delete user. It also allow user to view movie where the data of the movie get from API.

1.2   Login Page

First need to log in at login page. If user login as admin, it will navigate to admin page. If the user log in as normal user, it will navigate to movie page. Below is figure of login page.

1.3   Admin Page

If user log in as admin, user will go to admin page. In admin page, admin can create new user and delete user. Admin also can assign role to the user either the user is admin or normal user.

1.4   Movie Page

If user log in as normal user, it will navigate to movie page. In movie page, user can view all movie and its rating of the movie. When user click at the movie, it will display and show the trailer of the movie. User also can search movie in the search box what movie that user want to know the rating and the movie trailer